Mrs. Paul Gleichman, Who Spent 7 Years in That Country, Speaks

PICTURES ARE SHOWN

Guest and Tea Dav is Observed By the Travel Club Members

An illustrated message on the various forms of architecture as found in north central and southern India was presented by Mrs. Paul H. Gleichman to her co-members of The Bristol Travel Club, yesterday afternoon. Photographs of mosques, temples, government buildings, and other structures, with their graceful domes and carved columns were projected upon a screen as Mrs. Gleichman spoke, she being aided at the projector by Mrs. Frank S. Weil.

Mrs. Gleichman, a graduate of Hood College, Virginia, spent seven years in India while her husband, the Rev. Mr. Gleichman, was serving as a missionary there. Remarkable at the outset that India was in ages past inhabited by Aboriginal tribes, and touching lightly on historical make-up of the country, Mrs. Gleichman informed that the architecture there can be traced back 2000 years. "Inasmuch as the culture in the north of the country is more outstanding, the people of that section feel very superior to those in other parts of the land."

The "gem of India"—the Taj Mahal—was the first picture shown, and the others shown, proved as the speaker stated that the Indians erect their buildings for the centuries. Interiors of mosques were included as well as exterior views; and many of the structures, inlaid with pearls, or gracefully carved in lace-like design, brought forth exclamations of admiration. The views included some of the temples in Arabia, these usually being of white marble.

Pictures throughout the city of New Delhi were several in number, including the Secretariat and the legislative building. That the Mohammedans are very elaborate in executing works of architecture was clearly seen. The use of colors throughout the pillars of the buildings was pointed out, much sandstone, granite and marble being brought into play.

The Jain Temples, some dating back to 1000 B. C., were shown with their copper roofs and 1000 pillars, the latter intricately carved. Scenes on the pillars depicted the religion followed by the people at the time the temples were erected. On some the life of a special God or Goddess was thus recorded. Temple cars, crude looking and gaudy, drawn through the city streets during a festival, were shown. One temple, known as "Rock Fort Temple", was carved out of solid rock. This is located at Trichinopoly. "The temples are usually located near bodies of water because of the ceremonial bathing," Mrs. Gleichman informed. Many of the other types of carvings from solid rock were shown.

At the conclusion of the pictures, Mrs. Gleichman stressed the need for better international understanding. "It is necessary to put aside prejudices of other countries. India will no doubt be an important country in the future of the world. One person out of every five in the world is an Indian."

This was a guest and tea day, with Mrs. Serrill Douglass and Mrs. Serrill D. Dettelson pouring. They were assisted by the social committee of which Mrs. Ralph B. Scheffey is chairman.

Vocal numbers were offered by Kermit Marsh, a member of Bristol high school chorus, and of Strawberry & Clothier Chorus, Philadelphia.

ACQUIT MOTORIST ON DRUNKENNESS CHARGE

Keith Anderson, 34, of Trevese, Figured in Bristol Township Crash

SAID TO BE "DAZED"

DOYLESTOWN, Dec. 6.—Continuing the recent vogue of hand-out Christmas presents, a jury late Wednesday afternoon acquitted a motorist of a drunken driving charge.

Keith Anderson, Trevese, 31-year-old sales promotion man, was acquitted of the charge of operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor before Judge Calvin S. Boyer.

Anderson, who served with the famed 27th (New York) Division in the invasion of Okinawa, admitted that he had several beers and figured in a truck-car accident, near the intersection of Newport and Newportville roads, on the Croydon-Newportville road.

A unique feature of this trial, which began late Tuesday afternoon, when a Bristol physician described him as drunk when he appeared at his office for examination, was that three of the witnesses for the Commonwealth, who were in the car at the time of the accident, after being summoned by Assistant District Attorney Willard S. Curtin, testified that the defendant was "dazed."

The defendant, whose truck ran more than 100 feet after striking the car of Elbert Delano on a

DISCUSS MANNER IN WHICH TO AID CHILD

Laurel Bend P. T. A. Considers Various Phases in Panel Discussion

FACULTY TAKES PART

Some pertinent statements to ponder upon were presented during the course of a panel discussion entitled "Know Your Schools" in Laurel Bend school on Thursday evening. The Laurel Bend Parent-Teacher Association was the sponsor, with Mrs. Sarah B. Buckley, leading.

The manner in which children can be aided to meet individual needs in a democratic society were thoroughly discussed by the following teachers under the assigned subjects: Pre-School Child, Mrs. Glenda Glassman; Reading Readiness, Mrs. Buckley; The Exceptional Child, Mrs. Mary Yates; Report Cards, Miss Kirby; Testing, James Foley; P. T. A. Cooperation, Mrs. Helen Bucher.

Summarizing the various presentations it was pointed out that: "The curriculum should fit the needs of the child. The child should not be 'cut down' to fit the curriculum. The curriculum should be flexible enough to bring out hidden talents in a 'slow' child as well as directing into proper channels the normal and above-normal child."

"Reports to parents should be based on ability, attitude and progress. Testing is stressed to determine whether a child with a given native ability has developed proper attitude to progress, sufficient to make him the best possible citizen in the community of which he is and will be a vital part."

"The child, our greatest natural resource and our dearest possession, is always the chief interest of the P. T. A. and has been in its 50 years of existence. This cooperation is not only centered in the child in the home and school, but extends into all civic, community and governmental affairs. The chief object is to develop the child physically, mentally, morally and spiritually."

Melvin Houser was the presiding officer during the business meeting which was attended by a number of new members. The $1 attendance award was given to Miss Margaret Bresline's second and third grade room. A Christmas party for P. T. A. members is tentatively set for December 19th. Those interested are asked to contact officials at the school or Mrs. Walter Prickett.

Request Made for Early Returns in Seal Sale

"Although the Christmas Seal sale continues until Christmas, it is extremely helpful to the Tuberculosis Society and to the post office if returns are made early, before the heaviest rush of Christmas mail," said A. J. Strathie, P. D., president.

"We are grateful to those who send in their contributions promptly," said Dr. Strathie in mentioning postal employees' assistance in the seal sale. "Everyone connected with the seal sale has warm regard for postal employees. They have not complained about the extra load which the seal sale places upon them. They have always been extremely co-operative and helpful."

"There is another reason, too, why we feel indebted to postal employees, for it was a postal clerk in Denmark who in 1901 originated the idea of the Christmas Seal."

Also expressing gratitude to the volunteers for their efforts to insure the success of the Seal Sale, Dr. Strathie pointed out that women particularly have actively aided the anti-tuberculosis movement since the first seal sale.

ROTARIANS SET UP STUDENT FUND AS A MEMORIAL

Bristol Club Honors the Late Dr. Charles Sampsel, A Former Member

HE WAS KILLED IN WAR

Will Promote Source of Funds for Worthy Male Students

To promote a source of funds for worthy and eligible male students in the Bristol Rotary area, who would otherwise be unable to complete their college or post-graduate training, the Bristol Rotary Club has established a student loan fund, according to an announcement made today by club officials.

The fund was created as a memorial to the late Dr. Charles Sampsel, who was killed in action in World War II.

Sampsel, who joined the Bristol Rotary Club in May, 1940, received a commission in the Army in August, 1942, and was subsequently promoted to the rank of captain. He was killed in action while serving with the 71st Medical Battalion in the Okinawa Island campaign.

The announcement this morning of the fund marks another milestone in community service projects which the Rotary Club has accomplished since its inception in Bristol.

"The Rotary Loan Fund which our club has developed has been under consideration for some time," stated E. Keller Fox, club president. "Rotary International advises that, for many years student loan funds have been the means by which talented and worthy young people have been assisted in the completion of their education, when the lack of funds would have caused the delay or loss of further schooling. Rotary clubs which maintain and administer student loan funds have found that this type of investment work, paying large dividends in contributions to the welfare and progress of society which cannot be measured in dollars and cents, and we're certain our fund will be a real asset in aiding worthy, eligible students in our area," Fox added.

Details for the operation of the fund have been completely mapped out. Preference will be given to male college students who are juniors, seniors or post-graduate students who qualify by reason of talent or ability and who have a definite goal in view.

Personal qualifications include: High scholarship; good character; co-operative attitude toward school and community; and a willingness to work for a share of his school expenses.

A student may be recommended by a member of the Rotary Club; his school principal, his teacher or dean.

Applicants will be required to fill out a detailed application blank giving personal data, as well as scholastic and occupational experience.

An important feature of the loan fund is the sound training the student will receive in good business practice. To insure the success of the fund the student will be required to sign a promissory note endorsed by some responsible party.

Interest, plus repayment of the loan, shall not be due until graduation or completion of post-graduate work.

A SUMMARY OF THE NEWS

France's struggle against the Communists continued to be critical yesterday.

Italy also was in turmoil, and one person was killed and 25 hurt in a riot in a Rome suburb.

The Council of Foreign Ministers, meeting in London, made little progress as Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov was again evasive and Secretary Marshall demanded that he be more specific.

The Economic Commission for Europe, however, made headway with the program for lifting road transport barriers.

Violence continued in the Arab-Jewish clash. In an outbreak at Aden, British Red Sea port, 44 persons were killed and many wounded. Reinforcements have been rushed in. Five persons were killed in Palestine, but the situation there seemed to have eased.

In United Nations circles China was sounded out on the possibility of supplying troops, presumably as part of an international defense force, if they should be needed for Palestine.

While the British Conservatives were winning an important by-election in Epsom by a wide margin, Winston Churchill, in Manchester, declared that Laborites and Conservatives were united against "Communist tyranny."

A gala Christmas celebration, scheduled for the entire afternoon of Christmas Day, December 25th, is being sponsored for 500 men at Naval Hospital, Philadelphia, by the Community Services to Camp and Hospital Committee, Lower Bucks County Branch, American Red Cross.

The branch is, through this committee, providing three gifts each for the 500 men. Three holiday-wrapped packages will be given to each, the gifts being a fountain pen, cigarette case and handkerchief. The cost of gifts to each man is $2, the value being much higher it is stated, but with cooperation of manufacturers the prices are brought to a low level for the Red Cross.

The community services committee of the branch is headed by Mrs. Albert Torongo, of Yardley, and her entire committee is working on the project. Mrs. Julius Sobel, Jefferson avenue, is a local member of this committee. It is stated that the committee is doing the preliminary work, with the actual distribution and party being handled by Red Cross canteen units in Philadelphia.

A Christmas tree will be in evidence, and there will be music and possibly other entertainment.

The Southeastern Pennsylvania District of the Red Cross will provide Yule presents for 4500 men at hospitals at Philadelphia, Coatesville, and Phoenixville.

IN TRENTON HOSPITAL

Mrs. Martha Derry, of Yardley, was removed to Mercer Hospital, Trenton, N. J., on Thursday by Bucks Co. Rescue Squad.

There was a new Communist outbreak on the other side of the world when Communist rebels in Burma seized three districts north of Rangoon and set up a regime.

Washington debated foreign policy, aid and inflation. Under-Secretary of State Lovett told the Senate Appropriations Committee that the French strikes were an extension of Soviet policy and warned against belief in an imminent collapse of Soviet economy.

The Senate Republican Policy Committee laid its plans for a Republican anti-inflation program in answer to that of President Truman, while an influential banker, Edward Eagle Brown, advised Congress against tax reductions.

At the same time that leaders of the American Federation of Labor were planning a campaign to raise $5,000,000 for a drive to repeal the Taft-Hartley Law, the National Association of Manufacturers, concluding its conference in New York, called for a longer work week and opposed the Truman economic and financial controls.

FOOTBALL SQUAD IS GUEST OF EXCHANGE

Boys Addressed by "Bill" Luongo and "Jerry" McCarthy, of U. of P.

SERVED AT DINNER

As is its annual custom, Bristol Exchange Club served in the capacity of host on Thursday evening to the football squad from the University of Pennsylvania. The affair was in the form of a dinner in the rathskeller of the Elks' home, Radcliffe street, with entertainment following in the lodge assembly room.

Two guests, outstanding in sports circles, were present, the co-captains of University of Pennsylvania's undefeated 1947 football team, "Bill" Luongo, and "Jerry" McCarthy. They showed films of the Penn-Dartmouth game. The local boys sang as a group. Sheridan B. Metz, president of the Exchange Club, introduced Coach Harry McClister of Bristol high team, who spoke briefly. He stated: "Bristol high has suffered a poor season, the main reason for this being the fact the team faced 'Murderers' Row'. After five or six losses it is hard to get up and fight."

The members of the squad were introduced, also the managers, Coach McClister called upon the finance manager, Charles Beck; and the assistant coach, Gerald Bloom, for remarks.

David Sheerer, Jr., introduced the University of Penna. stars, who had met most of the high school members as the latter group sought autographs. The two showed motion pictures of the Penn-Dartmouth game as McCarthy commented upon it. Pictures of the Bristol-Burlington and Bristol-Morrisville games were also flashed on the screen.

Exchanges presented photographs of the football squad to the boys, and each senior received a photograph of the senior players. Appreciation to the club for the pleasures of the evening was expressed through Michael Pone.

ACQUIT MOTORIST ON DRUNKENNESS CHARGE

Keith Anderson, 34, of Trevoze, Figured in Bristol Township Crash

SAID TO BE "DAZED"

DOYLESTOWN, Dec. 6.—Continuing the recent vogue of handing out Christmas presents, a jury late Wednesday afternoon acquitted a motorist of a drunken driving charge.

Keith Anderson, Trevoze, 31-year-old sales promotion man and the father of four children, was acquitted of the charge of operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor before Judge Calvin S. Boyer.

Anderson, who served with the famed 25th (New York) Division in the invasion of Okinawa, admitted that he had several beers and figured in a truck-car accident, near the intersection of Newport and Newportville roads, Bristol township, October 7, on the Croydon-Newportville road.

A unique feature of this trial, which began late Tuesday afternoon, when a Bristol physician described him as drunk when he appeared at his office for examination, was that three of the witnesses for the Commonwealth, who were in the car at the time of the accident, after being summoned by Assistant District Attorney Willard S. Curtin, testified that the defendant was "dazed."

The defendant, whose truck ran more than 100 feet after striking the car of Elbert Delano on a

DISCUSS MANNER IN WHICH TO AID CHILD

Laurel Bend P. T. A. Considers Various Phases in Panel Discussion

FACULTY TAKES PART

Some pertinent statements to ponder upon were presented during the course of a panel discussion entitled "How Your School Can Help," at the Laurel Bend P. T. A. school on Thursday evening. The Laurel Bend Parent-Teacher Association was the sponsor, with Mrs. Sarah B. Buckley, leading.

The manner in which children can be aided to meet individual needs in a democratic society were thoroughly discussed by the following teachers under the assigned subjects: Pre-School Child, Mrs. Glenda Glassmire; Reading Readiness, Mrs. Buckley; The Exceptional Child, Mrs. Mary Yates; Report Cards, Miss Kirby; Testing, James Foley; P. T. A. Cooperation, Mrs. Helen Bucher.

Summarizing the various presentations it was pointed out that: "The curriculum should fit the needs of the child. The child should not be 'cut down' to fit the curriculum. The curriculum should be flexible enough to bring out hidden talents in a 'slow' child as well as directing into proper channels the normal and above-normal child."

"Reports to parents should be based on ability, attitude and progress. Testing is stressed to determine whether a child with a given native ability has developed proper attitude to progress, sufficient to make him the best possible citizen in the community of which he is and will be a vital part."

"The child, our greatest natural resource and our dearest possession, is always the chief interest of the P. T. A. and has been in its 50 years of existence. This cooperation is not only centered in the child in the home and school, but extends into all civic, community and governmental affairs. The chief object is to develop the child physically, mentally, morally and spiritually."

Melvin Houser was the presiding officer during the business meeting which was attended by a number of new members. The $1 attendance award was given to Miss Margaret Bresline's second and third grade room. A Christmas party for P. T. A. members is tentatively set for December 19th. Those interested are asked to contact officials at the school or Mrs. Walter Prickett.

ROTARIANS SET UP STUDENT FUND AS A MEMORIAL

Bristol Club Honors the Late Dr. Charles Sampsel, A Former Member

HE WAS KILLED IN WAR

Will Promote Source of Funds for Worthy Male Students

To promote a source of funds for worthy and eligible male students in the Bristol Rotary area, who would otherwise be unable to complete their college or post-graduate training, the Bristol Rotary Club has established a student loan fund, according to an announcement made today by club officials.

The fund was created as a memorial to the late Dr. Charles Sampsel, who was killed in action in World War II.

Sampsel, who joined the Bristol Rotary Club in May, 1940, received a commission in the Army in August, 1942, and was subsequently promoted to the rank of captain. He was killed in action while serving with the 71st Medical Battalion in the Okinawa Island campaign.

The announcement this morning of the fund marks another milestone in community service projects which the Rotary Club has accomplished since its inception in Bristol.

"The Rotary Loan Fund which our club has developed has been under consideration for some time," stated E. Keller Fox, club president.

"Rotary International advises that, for many years student loan funds have been the means by which talented and worthy young people have been assisted in the completion of their education, when the lack of funds would have caused the delay or loss of further schooling. Rotary clubs which maintain and administer student loan funds have found that this type of investment in youth is a most satisfactory work, paying large dividends in contributions to the welfare and progress of society which cannot be measured in dollars and cents, and we're certain our fund will be a real asset in aiding worthy, eligible students in our area," Fox added.

Details for the operation of the fund have been completely mapped out. Preference will be given to male college students who are juniors, seniors or post-graduate students, who qualify by reason of talent or ability and who have a definite goal in view.

Personal qualifications include: High scholarship; good character; cooperative attitude toward school and community; and a willingness to work for a share of his school expenses.

A student may be recommended by a member of the Rotary Club; his school principal, his teacher or dean.

Applicants will be required to fill out a detailed application blank giving personal data, as well as scholastic and occupational experience.

An important feature of the loan fund is the sound training the student will receive in good business practice. To insure the success of the fund the student will be required to sign a promissory note endorsed by some responsible party.

Interest, plus repayment of the loan, shall not be due until graduation or completion of post-graduate work.

SOMETHING IN RETURN

Any program which will give this country a return, however small, on its relief handouts to Europe is sure to command the support of the American public.

There will be uncommon interest, then, in the recommendations made to Congress by the Herter committee on foreign aid, and particularly its suggestion that repayment for Uncle Sam's largesse could be access to strategic materials in various parts of the world.

According to the committee, a systematic review of world resources would "produce astonishing results in terms of possibilities of repayment." Thus this country could receive iron ore from Labrador, oil from Venezuela and chrome and nickel from New Caledonia.

Transfer of these deposits to America would be no more than a fair exchange for the minerals which Uncle Sam is to send abroad and the loss of which will have pronounced effect on this nation's economy.

Although the Marshall Plan contemplates loans as well as gifts, most Americans know that the loan feature was added merely to sell the program to Congressmen who otherwise would have been opposed to it. The country will never get anything back. That was the experience after World War I.

If a way can be found, therefore, to make a deal that will not be entirely one-sided, more Americans may become reconciled to continued large-scale aid to Europe.

The Herter committee, which speaks out of a knowledge gained on an extended investigation of Europe, leaves the impression that other nations in addition to those mentioned have natural resources which could be used in trade with the United States.
Clearly this is a possibility which should be further and carefully explored.

REPORT COURTESY

Chivalry, which sometimes seems to be receding into the dim reaches of tradition, apparently still exists—in some measure, at least—in the modern business office. This conclusion is based upon two stories that appeared on the same day in the newspapers recently.

In Albany, N. Y., some business college graduates (female) touted up the things they didn't like about bosses. No. 1 peevwas the bird who hands out last-minute typing jobs at quitting time. Other objectionable qualities were mumbling, smoke-blowing, errand-dodging, and issuing "harmless" invitations to dinner.

In St. Louis, some other business college people (male) listed the things they did like about modern secretaries. They're more intelligent, better trained, more attractive, and they have a good chance of marrying their boss, said the men.

It is not revealed how the lines of communication are operating between Albany and St. Louis, but that certainly seems to be turning the other cheek for fair

Women Should Be Real Home Makers, Club Group is Told

NEWTOWN, Dec. 6 — That women should be real home-makers, not merely housekeepers, was the opinion voiced by Miss Mabel Satterthwaite, a home economics representative working from State College, as she spoke at the meeting of the Newtown New Century Club Wednesday afternoon.

Introduced by Miss Elizabeth Palmer, chairman of the American home and citizenship committee, which had charge of the program, Miss Satterthwaite spoke of women's place in the world today. She declared that women have the opportunity of exerting their influence now more than at any time before. She urged them to take stock of themselves to see where they have failed.

The women in America, said Miss Satterthwaite, are "Jacks of all trades and masters of many." Their duties include seeing that their families are well fed and well clothed. In addition to their many tasks in the home, she said they should make a study of the social, economic and political affairs of the world, and these should be freely discussed in the home.

Miss Flora Mae Sagul, the county home economics representative, was guest.

Members of the Makefield Mothers' Club were also among the guests, and representing that organization, Mrs. George W. Robbins gave a brief talk.

A short business session was conducted by the president, Mrs. Raymond Taylor, and Mrs. Charles. She was welcomed into membership.

RODGERS' GOAL IN EXTRA PERIOD WINS FOR HIBERNIANS

"Johnny" Rodgers' field goal, the "sudden death" extra point, gave the Hibernians a 38-36 triumph over the Knights of Columbus last night on the high school floor in a Bristol Basketball League tilt.

Most of the spectators had left the game when the two teams decided to put on their thrilling act, one of the best here in years.

The Knights were trailing, 32-28, with two minutes left in the first extra session, Kane and "Vince" Profy scored the two points from underneath the basket to give the Hibernians the victory.

Rodgers was high scorer for the winners with seven field goals and two out of three fouls for 16 points, while Bonner had 10 points to lead the losers.

Poor marksmanship from the free line proved costly to the Knights as they dropped in but two conversions in 11 tries, while the Hibs had eight out of 14. The Radcliffe Street boys, 17-15.

HOPE FIREMEN SEEK THEIR 12TH VICTORY

BURLINGTON, Dec. 6 — The Hope Fire Company contingent will seek its 12th gridiron victory of the season tomorrow when it meets the Palmyra Red Devils on the Burlington high school field. The game is a re-match with the clubs having played to a scoreless tie earlier in the season.

The Red Devils have a record that practically equals the Burs and they are the only boys that the Hope team failed to score on. Coach "Pete" Bonrice drilled his team twice this season and feels confident that the firemen will end their season unbeaten. The Hope club has beaten such teams as Langhorne Aces, St. Ann's, Twin Boro, Phoenixville, Moose, and Bordentown.

The Hope eleven is led by the following boys from Bristol: "Teddy" Sak, "Moe" Cauce, Bud Mount, "Jimmy" Rue, "Woody" Caione, Joe Plebani, and "Bobby" Bauroth.

PROFY TEAM GETS FIRST SETBACK; ST. ANN'S WINS

The Profy team, defending champions of the Bristol Suburban League, suffered its first setback of the season last night when beaten by an alert St. Ann's A. A. quintet, 38-35, in a well-played Bristol Basketball League game on the high school court.

Although he scored but one field goal, the playing of Dick Mingin turned the tide of the game. The Profytes seemed to be coasting to victory when Mingin entered the game midway in the third period. The entry of Mingin lessened the burden of Stan Lelinski who was the only St. Ann's player to get the ball off the back-board. With Mingin in the line-up, Lelinski began to roam the floor and take a hand in defensive playing which proved effective.

Barbetta scored eight field goals to lead St. Ann's with 16 points while Cahill had 15 points to top the Profy team.

Architecture of India Is Basis for A Talk Here

His numbers were "Ich Liebe Dich" (Grieg); a ballad, "Years and Years Ago"; and "When Your Lover Has Gone". Mrs. David Sheerer, Jr., served as his accompanist. The program was in charge of Mrs. Ernest Lawrence, Jr., international relations chairman.

Yuletide decorations throughout the club room were much admired, these consisting of evergreens and candles. There was also an exhibit of foods through courtesy of the Nutrition Service of the Southeastern Penna. Red Cross Chapter, this being arranged by Mrs. Charles Peet, nutrition chairman of the local Red Cross branch. The foods shown and recipes distributed are aimed to aid in conservation of such vital foods as wheat and meat, thus helping to "Save the Peace". A sale of brooms, baskets, trays, etc., made by the blind of Bucks County was conducted. Many such items were exhibited. The president, Mrs. Sheerer, informed that individuals may have chairs re-caned or re-rushed at the Bristol Workshop for the Blind, which was recently opened.

Mrs. Earl H. Tomb reminded of the Christmas decorations lecture scheduled at the club home for the afternoon of December 16th. Mrs. Russell W. DeLong, chairman of the welfare committee, outlined the donations made to worthy charities from that committee's budget.

They were Elbert Delano, his wife, Lillian, who were seated in the front of the car which was struck; their son, a 14-year-old youth, and daughter-in-law who was holding a small child on her lap which she was nursing.

Elbert Delano, whose car was struck by the defendant's truck, admitted that the defendant gave him $60 towards the damages. He testified that his car was damaged to the extent of $150, but that he didn't count the cost of labor.

Character witnesses for Anderson were Joseph Koons, 59, Trevo service station operator, and Justice of the Peace John J. Brennan, Trevo Heights, who is serving on the jury panel this week.

The jury deliberated about one-half hour and placed the costs on the county.

SCATTERED across this nation are some of the eagiest automobile buyers the world ever saw. They cut their eyeteeth on a steering wheel, so to speak—they know car values from A to Z—and you have to be plenty good to step ahead of your price class in the volume of your sales to them. That's why it's startling—sometimes even to us—to see the double-barreled story of public preference that's written in the sales records and registration figures:

ITEM: Only three cars outsell Buick—and all of these are in the so-called "low-price field."

ITEM: In some localities—and quite often in polls that ask "Which car will you buy next?"—Buick ranks not fourth, but third, actually ahead of one of the lowest-priced three.

Naturally, the smart buyer will ask "How come?" Well, the most standout style of the season, the style that's the clearest forecast of wonderful things to be, undoubtedly has much to do with it.

But that isn't all. The dollar is still a pretty important measuring stick. So we don't think Buick could be where it is if it didn't offer a bigger dollar's worth—bigger in size and substance, in lift and life, in soft ride and easy handling, bigger in the all-round happiness you'll get out of your buy.

Which suggests, of course: Why go against the solid judgment of your fellow men? Why not see your Buick dealer now—with or without a car to trade—and place the order that will put you where you belong, right up in the four-front?

RODGERS' GOAL IN EXTRA PERIOD WINS FOR HIBERNIANS

"Johnny" Rodgers' field goal, the "sudden death" extra point, gave the Hibernians a 38-36 triumph over the Knights of Columbus last night on the high school floor in a Bristol Basketball League tilt.

Most of the spectators had left the game when the two teams decided to put on their thrilling act, one of the best here in years.

The Knights were trailing, 32-28, with two minutes left to play when "Bob" Bonner took a pass to cut the lead two points. With 15 seconds remaining, Bonner again cut the cords with a double-decker to tie the count. At the end of the regulation game the score was 32-32.

Both the Knights and the Hibbs scored two field goals in the first extra session. Kane and "Vince" Profy scoring for the Knights, and "Jobby" Dugan and McGerr tallying for the Hibbs.

The second extra period had only gone 30 seconds when Rodgers scored the two-point from underneath the basket to give the Hibernians the victory.

Rodgers was high scorer for the winners with seven field goals and two out of three fouls for 16 points, while Bonner had 10 points to lead the losers.

Poor marksmanship from the free line proved costly to the Knights as they dropped in but two conversions in 11 tries, while the Hibbs had eight out of 14. The Radcliffe Street boys outscored their foes from the field, 17-15.

HOPE FIREMEN SEEK THEIR 12TH VICTORY

BURLINGTON, Dec. 6 — The Hope Fire Company contingent will seek its 12th gridiron victory of the season tomorrow when it meets the Palmyra Red Devils on the Burlington high school field. The game is a re-match with the clubs having played to a scoreless tie earlier in the season.

The Red Devils have a record that practically equals the Buris and they are the only boys that the Hope team failed to score on. Coach "Pete" Borrice drilled his Burlington team twice this season and feels confident that the firemen will end their season unbeaten. The Hope club has beaten such teams as Langhorne Aces, St. Ann's, Twin Boro, Phoenixville Moose, and Bordentown.

The Hope eleven is leader with the following boys from Bristol: "Teddy" Sak, "Moe" Cangel, Bud Mount, "Jimmy" Rue, "Woody" Calone, Joe Plebani, and "Bobby" Baurath.

PROFY TEAM GETS FIRST SETBACK; ST. ANN'S WINS

The Profy team, defending champions of the Bristol Suburban League, suffered its first setback of the season last night when beaten by an alert St. Ann's A. A. quintet, 38-35, in a well-played Bristol Basketball League game on the high school court.

Although he scored but one field goal, the playing of Dick Mingin turned the tide of the game. The Profytes seemed to be coasting to victory when Mingin entered the game mid-way in the third period.

The entry of Mingin lessened the burden of Stan Lelinski who was the only St. Ann's player to get the ball off the back-board. With Mingin in the line-up, Lelinski began to roam the floor and take a hand in defensive playing which proved effective.

Barbetta scored eight field goals to lead St. Ann's with 16 points while Cahall had 15 points to top the Profy team.

phia. His numbers were "Ich Liebe Dich" (Grieg); a ballad, "Years and Years Ago"; and "When Your Lover Has Gone". Mrs. David Sheerer, Jr., served as his accompanist. The program was in charge of Mrs. Ernest Lawrence, Jr., international relations chairman.

Yuletide decorations throughout the club room were much admired, these consisting of evergreens and candles. There was also an exhibit of foods through courtesy of the Nutrition Service of the Southeastern Penna. Red Cross Chapter, this being arranged by Mrs. Charles Peet, nutrition chairman of the local Red Cross branch. The foods shown and recipes distributed are aimed to aid in conservation of such vital foods as wheat and meat, thus helping to "Save the Peace". A sale of brooms, baskets, trays, etc., made by the blind of Bucks County was conducted, many such items being exhibited. The president, Mrs. Sheerer, informed that individuals may have chairs re-caned or re-rushed at the Bristol Workshop for the Blind, which was recently opened.

Mrs. Earl H. Tomb reminded of the Christmas decorations lecture scheduled at the club home for the afternoon of December 16th. Mrs. Russell W. DeLong, chairman of the welfare committee, outlined the donations made to worthy charities from that committee's budget.

straight piece of road, left the highway and stopped on the side of a creek.

Troopers Andrew J. Kutney and Duane C. Allen, who arrested the defendant, described him as unfit to drive his truck.

The biggest surprise of the trial came when James Young, a Philadelphia salesman, who arrived at the scene of the crash and who, a policeman testified, telephoned him, saying there has been an accident with a drunken driver, said on the stand he could not remember making these statements. When Trooper Allen arrived at the scene the salesman said: "This man has been drinking and ought to be examined," the trooper testified.

Young did an about face. First he testified for the Commonwealth and then for the defendant, "In my opinion, Anderson was not intoxicated that night," Young said.

ily, who were riding in the car which was struck, also did double-duty, first testifying for the Commonwealth and then for the defendant.

They were Elbert Delano, his wife, Lillian, who were seated in the front of the car which was struck; their son, a 14-year-old youth, and daughter-in-law who was holding a small child on her lap which she was nursing.

Elbert Delano, whose car was struck by the defendant's truck, admitted that the defendant gave him $60 towards the damages. He testified that his car was damaged to the extent of $150, but that he didn't count the cost of labor.

Character witnesses for Anderson were Joseph Koons, 59, Trevoise service station operator, and Justice of the Peace John J. Brennan, Trevoise Heights, who is serving on the jury panel this week.

The jury deliberated about one-half hour and placed the costs on the county.

Right up in the FOUR-FRONT

SCATTERED across this nation are some of the eagiest automobile buyers the world ever saw.

They cut their eyeteeth on a steering wheel, so to speak — they know car values from A to izzard — and you have to be plenty good to step ahead of your price class in the volume of your sales to them.

That's why it's startling — sometimes even to us — to see the double-barreled story of public preference that's written in the sales records and registration figures:

ITEM: Only three cars outsell Buick — and all of these are in the so-called "low-price field."

ITEM: In some localities — and quite often in polls that ask "Which car will you buy next?" — Buick ranks not fourth, but third, actually ahead of one of the lowest-priced three.

Naturally, the smart buyer will ask "How come?"

Well, the most standout style of the season, the style that's the clearest forecast of wonderful things to be, undoubtedly has much to do with it.

But that isn't all. The dollar is still a pretty important measuring stick.

So we don't think Buick could be where it is if it didn't offer a bigger dollar's worth — bigger in size and substance, in lift and life, in soft ride and easy handling, bigger in the all-round happiness you'll get out of your buy.

Which suggests, of course:

Why go against the solid judgment of your fellow men? Why not see your Buick dealer now — with or without a car to trade — and place the order that will put you where you belong, right up in the four-front?
